lieved. The heads of ordinary American families of small income had been address. Governor Miller also was set free.

Discussing the revenue and tariff wisdom and breadth of statesmanship.

Says Coolidge,

By Army Cuts

Can families of small income had been set free.

Discussing the revenue and tariff bills the Vice-President declared them the best that could be devised in view of uncertain conditions abroad. With regard to the Potter bill he expressed a conviction that it would afford a convictio foreign vessels on something like equal terms.

Referring to a serious condition of "La Malquerida" in Spanish The Spanish Theater of New York Referring to a serious condition of unemployment existing when the present Administration took charge, Mr. Coolidge said more jobs exist at present than there are men and women to fill them. Wages, he said, have risen in all the main industries, and the textile mills of New England, which closed because they declared impossible the payment of a scale prevailing in their industry, have now reopened and are paying the old scale.

Colonel Roosevelt's memory was honwill present "La Malquerida," by Ja cinto Benavente at the Longacre The Nance O'Neil, who presented the pla in English, and also of John Garre Underhill, translator of Benavente works, who prepared the play for the American production. This perform ance will be the twenty-third of the season by the Spanish players.
